ounty was a very serious one, and might out the State ticket a great many votes. "The State Committee," he continued, should take some action. There are two socratio county tickets in the field and two Democrats are running for Assembly.

me is a Republican county, and if the split in the Democratic party continues I am tain that it will cost the State ticket hunds of votes. The entire trouble has been d by the 'pernicious activity' of Federal los holders. They have used their posilions to control caucuses and overawe delegates to nominating conventions. The honest Democrats of Broome County are thorougher disgusted with the office-holding bosses. I have laid before the State Committee a manifesto signed by the most prominent Democrats of our county, protesting against the neuropation and bossism of the Federal office-holders."

The manifesto is a long one. Here are

The manifesto is a long one. Here are some extracts from it:

"For about two weeks preceding the so-called Democratic Convention. First Deputy Collector of the Port of New York, Charles Davis, Mr. James C. Truman, of the Treasury Dayartmans, and Messrs. Ring, Davidson, Lee, Terhune. Tuttle, Larkins and Sullivan, of the New York Custom-House, appointees in reality of Mr. Davis, spent their time in effect—by every species of political cajolery, success, in short, by all the tricks of the most anscrupulous partisan politics—to manipulate the primaries in the interest of Mr. Davis. The Postmasters throughout the county were generally similarly employed.

"The so-called Democratic County Convention was Democratic only in name. It was the fruit of Oustom-House interference in its primaries and was run by Oustom-House interference when assembled, for no other purpose than to give a fictitious and fraudulent indication to Collector Davis.

"How can clerks be expected to be efficient in the Custom-House at New York when they append weaks in Broome County in running enouses and conventions?

"Certainly eight men from the New York Custom-House, besides Deputy Collector Charles Davis, were there before and during the conventions. Since June Mr. Davis has spent more time in this county than in New York. He is the dispenser of the Federal patternage for the southern tier of counties."

Wed a Divorced Man for Fun. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

Madison, Wis., Oct. 17.—News of a singular sarriage in Pairfield County last week is creating a good deal of talk throughout the State, though every effort has been made to suppress the news. Edward Foss, a station agent, forty years old, was Edward Foss, a station agent, forty years old, was out wilking with a party when he met Miss Clara Foster, nineteen years old, who was driving with R. C. Hene, who is a Justice of the Peace. The conversation turned on marriage, and one of the party laughingly suggested that Mr. Foss and Miss Foster be married, as Miss Foster would only have to drop the last three letters of her name and add an "s." The parties concurred jokingly, and Mr. Hene performed the coremony. Next day the serious nature of the affair dawned upon them and people in the village and here are very much interested. Miss Foster is the daughter of N. C. Foster, a millionaire lumberman. She has since the occurrence kept her room at home, and is greatly distressed. Friends of the couple see no way out of it but divorce. Mr. Foss was formerly married, but was divorced last spring.

Last Honors to Gen. Kilpatrick. Visitors began to arrive at the City Hall early is morning to take a last look at the features of en. Judson Klipatrick, whose body is lying in in the Governor's room, but they saw only ag-covered casket laden with flowers an aire branches. The casket has not been opened since vesterday morning, when a number of the sad soldier's relatives gazed for the last time on is face, nor will it be opened again. The guard f honor from Kilpatrick Post 143, G. A. R., is will on duty.

of honor from Kilpatrick Post 143, G. A. H., is sell on duty.

The members of the Post will assemble at their beadquarters to-morrow morning at 8.15 o'clock and proceed at once to the City Hall to escort the body to the West Shore depot, where it will be placed on the 11.15 train for West Point. The pall-bearers will be Gen. R. A. Alger, ex-Governor of Thokigan, Gen. William T. Jewett, John Loomis, Gen. John Hammond, ex-Senator G. A. Hobart, and Gen. H. W. Shoeum. The line of march will be through Broadway to Union Square, around the Washington Monument, down Fifth avenue to Canal street to the Desbrosses street ferrp.

A Flirt in a Fight. A lively row between two well-dressed men at l a large crowd in Union Square Park at 8, 80 b'clock yesterday afternoon near the cottage. Park Officer Patrick Mann wedged his way through the Officer Patrick Mann wedged his way through the gathering and parted the principals, who immediately accounted each other of assault. One was Mr. A. A. Jorgena, a florist, of 27 West Union square, and the other Edward Lola, an Italian waiter, of the East Twenty-fourth street. According to the strend when Lola and two ladies waited by. Jerema spoke to his friend in German, saying:
"Let as play mash on these two women."
Fola understood the language and said: "I think you had better mind your own business and let respectable ladies alone."
Jergens replied, and then the two men used their lists. In the Jeflerson Market Police Court this morning Justice Gorman fined Jergens $10 and adisoharged Fola.

Some Questions Answered by the Hartford Post About the Tortilita Mines.

PREFERRED DIVIDENDS.

Since the article descriptive of the Tortilita Gold and Bilver Mining Company appeared in the Evening Post, the publishers have been delaged with inquiries concernthe publishers have been delaged with inquiries concerning the integrity of the company and with requests respecting the value of the company's property. We are glad to be able to reassure all inquirers and others interested in this subject. The publishers of the Post enjoy a personal acquaintance with Mr. Joseph H. Reall, President of the Tortilits Gold and Silver Mining Company and the property of the propert pany, and know him to be an able and honorable gentle-man. We have the fullest confidence in his integrity and ability, either personally or as representing the To-tilita Company, to perform faithfully whatever contract

In regard to the company's mining properties the fact are known. The Tortilita group of mines contain a vas deposit of gold and silver ore. They have for some time deposit of gold and silver ore. They have for some time been under development in a small way; that is, with wo or three head-windlasses and a five-stamp mill. They have produced enough of the precious metals to more than nay all expenses and prove their great value. The company is now contracting for the introduction of suitable machinery, and for the purchase of three twenty-stamp mills, which will multiply the present producing capacity of site mines ten times without largely increasing expenses. To pay for these improvements they are saling a given quantity of stock—a sensible and wise proceeding.

expenses. To pay for these improvements they are selling a given quantity of stock—a secable and wise proceeding.

The management are giving their enterprise the widest publicity through the press, and thus courting the clonest investigation of their property.

The company will be making five or six thousand deliars aday as soon as they get their fifty or sixty stamps in operation, and then the stock will probably be obtainable only for many times the price that it is on the market for to-day.
